The Strength of Michael Angelo. Michael Angelo relied almost entirely upon form-the form of the figure and of the draperies, writes Charles H. Caffin in St. Nicholas. He told Pope Julian II., when the latter requested him to paint the ceiling of the Sistine chapel at Rome, that he was not a painter, but a sculptor; yet, after he had shut himself up for four years-from 1508 to 1512-and the scaffold was removed, a result had been achieved which is without parallel in the world. Very wonderful is the work which Michael Angelo spread over this vast area of 10,000 square feet. The fact that there are 343 principal figures, many of colossal size, besides a great number of others introduced for decorative effect, and that the creator of this vast scheme was only 33 when he began his work-all this is marvelous, prodigious, and yet not so marvelous as the variety of expression in the figures of which Jeremiah is only one figure, in a small side arch.

Help for Women Passing Through Change of Life

Providence has allotted us each at least seventy years in which to fulfill our mission in life, and it is generally our own fault if we die prematurely.

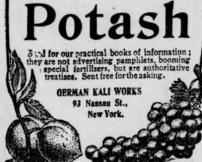

Nervous exhaustion invites disease This statement is the positive truth. When everything becomes a burden and you cannot walk a few blocks without excessive fatigue, and you break out into perspiration easily, and your face flushes, and you grow excited and shaky at the least provocation, and you cannot bear to be crossed in any-thing, you are in danger; your nerves have given out; you need building up at once! To build up woman's nervous system and during the period of change of life we know of no better medicine than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. illustration. Mrs. Mary L. Koehne, 371 Garfield Avenue, Chicago, Ill., writes:

"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable "Inaveused Lydia E. Finanam's vegetable Compound for years in my family and it never disappoints; so when I felt that I was nearing the change of life I commenced treatment with it. I took in all about six bottles ment with it. I took in all about six bottles and it did me a great deal of good. It stopped my dizzy spells, pains in my back and the headaches with which I had suffered for months before taking the Compound. I feel that if it had not been for this great medicine for women that I should not have been alive to-day. It is splendid for women, old or young, and will surely cure all female disorders."

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick and ailing women to write her for advice. Her great experience is at their service, free of cost.

INTERNATIONAL LESSON COMMENTS FOR MARCH 5.

Subject: Jesus at the Feast of Tabernacies, John vil., 37-46-Golden Text, John vil., 46-Memory Verse, 37-Commentary on the Day's Lesson.

I. Christ teaching in the temple (vs. 37-39). During the closing days of the feast great opposition was stirred up against Jesus, and the Jewish rulers sent officers to apprehend Him, but notwithstanding this He taught boldly in the temple. 37. "Last day." There is a difference of opinion as to whether this was the seventh or eighth day of the feast. Edersheim thinks it was the seventh day, which was really the last day of the feast. The eighth day was kept as a Sabbath, when there was no ceremony of drawing water from Siloam. "Jesus stood." In the temple court, probably in Solomon's porch. "And cried." ably in Solomon's porch. "And cried." Spoke with a voice loud enough so all could hear. "If any man thirst." It was burn ing autumn weather, when the sun had for months shone in a cloudless sky, and the early rains were longed for. Water at all time is a marie ward in a sultry cit. all times is a magic word in a sultry cal mate like Palestine, but at this moment i mate like Palestine, but at this moment it had a double power. The ceremonies of pouring water commemorated that part of the wilderness wanderings when the people were suffering from a terrible thirst, and Moses at God's command brought water for them from the rock (Num. 20: 1-11). Now Jesus invites all who were suffering from spiritual thirst, like the burning thirst of the people in the desert. Thirst is emblematical of spiritual necessitics; an intense need and desire for pardon, for help, for righteousness, for love, for peace, for comfort, for God, for a worthy life, for immortal life. "Let him." Freely and without hesitancy or reserve. "Come." A very precious invitation. This word ought to come with great force to "Come." A very precious invitation. I ms word ought to come with great force to every soul thirsting after spiritual life. To come to Jesus is to believe on Him, to accept His teachings, to repent of our sins, to yield to His commands, to submit to Him fully. "Unto Me and drink." Here we see the absolute sufficiency of Christ for all human need. Jesus confronts the internal misery and heartache of the world sin and misery and heartache of the world and deliberately declares that He is the panacea for it all.

38. "He that believeth." To believe has the same meaning as to come, as used in the preceding verse. "Scripture hath said." The reference is not to any one passaid." The reference is not to any one passage, but to many passages and promises combined. See Isa. 58:11; 44:3; Jer. 31:12; Ezek. 47:1-12, etc. "Out of his belly." The innermost part of man, the soul, the heart. "Shall flow." This clearly implies something received that it may flow from the recipient unto others. "Rivers." Denoting abundance, freeness, continued supply, in contrast with the small, golden pitcher ased in the ceremony of pouring water. "Living water." Pure, running water, "Living water." Pure, running water, ever-flowing streams; the opposite of stagnant, malarious, poisonous water; also lifegiving water (chap. 4:10). The gospel of Christ, which is the truth of God received into the heart by the Spirit, brings life, health and joy.

Christ, which is the truth of God received into the heart by the Spirit, brings life, health and joy.

39. "This spake He." This is John's explanation of Christ's words. "Of the Spirit," etc. The Holy Spirit and His influences were the living waters, abundant, free, purifying, bringing life, health, saivation to the soul, as water to the thirsty, as rain to the parched earth, and making every Christian a source of the same influences which he has received from the Holy Spirit. This is a prophecy of the dispensation of the Spirit which was to commence with the outpourning of the Spirit on the day of Pentecost, and continue through the ages till all the world is brought to Christ. We need to lay more emphasis in our day upon this wonderful gift, both for our individual growth and usefulness and for the salvation of the world. "Not yet given." The dispensation of the Spirit had not been ushered in, and He had not yet been poured out upon the hearts of be lievers in all His fulness. This cannot mean that the Spirit did not exist and was in no sense present with believers in the Old Testament dispensation.

mean that the Spirit did not exist and was in no sense present with believers in the Old Testament dispensation.

II. Different opinions concerning Christ (vs. 49-43). 49. "Many—said." Those who heard the powerful declarations of Jesus knew that He was more than an ordinary man. "The prophet." Referring to the great prophet predicted by Moses (Deut. 18:15), "whom some identified with the great prophet predicted by Moses (Deut. 18:15), "whom some identified with the Messiah, and others supposed would be the forerunner of the Messiah." From the next verse we see that here He was distinguished from the Messiah. 41. "Others said," etc. These believed Jesus to be the Messiah—the Christ, the Anointed One—whom all pious Jews were expecting at this period, and to whom their religious rites all pointed; though for the most part they were expecting only a temporal king or Redeemer. "Out of Galilee." Christ seemed to them to come from Galilee, because His early home was there and much of His ministry had been there.

42. "The Scripture said," etc. The Jews knew that the Messiah was to be of the family of David (Psa. 132:11; Isa. 9:6, 7; 11:1-5; Jer. 23:5) and was to be born in Bethlehem (Mic. 5:2; I Sam. 16:1, 5, 18); but they did not know that in Christ these Scriptures were fulfilled. All the trouble with this argument was that they did not take care to ascertain the facts. Their quotations of Scripture were an argument in facts.

tations of Scripture were an argument in favor of Jesus being the Messiah, for He fulfilled the Scriptures. Many another ar-gument against religion is of this same na-ture. Men set up a caricature of religion, and arguing against that really presents arguments in favor of true religion as it is in the gospel. "Where David was." David was born in Bethlehem and lived there until he was called into the service of Saul, Israel's king. 43. "A division." It means a serious and possibly violent division.

III. The Jews seek His arrest (vs. 44-46). 44. "Some of them." Some of the people, provoked by the controversy would on their own responsibility have carried Him before the Sanhedrin. The reference here is not to the officers. "But no man," etc. Not even those who had been commanded to do it (see vs. 32, 45). They were fettered on the one hand by fear of the adherents of Jesus and on the other by the secret power of God, impressing them the secret power of God, impressing them with an involuntary awe, so that they dared not proceed.

45. "The officers." Not Roman soldiers, but temple police, answering to the modern constable. They had been directed by the members of the Sanhedrin to arrest Jesus (v. 32). "Why," etc. The officers had returned without fulfilling their mission, and the authorities were chagrined:
46. "Never man so spake" (R. V.) Christ spake (1) with authority; (2) with directness to men's hearts; (3) with power; (4) clearly and distinctly.

Horse Brought Home Dead Master. A strange crime is puzzling the police of Bergamo, Italy. At a late hour in the night, a horse and trap belonging to Signor Laroupi, a well known citizen, drew up in front of his house. On the seat was Signor Laroupi's headless body, with the reins tightly wrapped around the hands. The crime is believed to have been committed by members of a secret society, among whom Signor Laroupi had enemies. The head was afterward found in a sack containing Christmas presents, which the murdered man had purchased in a neighboring town earlier in the day. After decapitating their victim, the murderers had secured the body in the trap and whipped up the horse. The animal having frequently traveled by the same road, found its way home.

Cows Paid Good Dividends. I. F. Page of Monroe, N. H., has completed his account with two cows 'or one year, as follows: Amount reeived from McIndoes creamery $96.48, received for milk sold $16.04, making $112.52. In addition to this amount Mr. Page has used in his family one quart of milk every day for the year. The feed for these cows has been strictly hay and grass

COMMERCIAL REVIEW.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s "Weekly Review of Trade" says:

Weather conditions still dominate the trade situation. Low temperatures and deep snow have interfered with traffic and checked the revival of business that was well under way in most sections of the county. Retail distribution is not maintained, and the deleterious effects are visible in all outdoor work, while the interruption to movement of freight has affected manufacturing to some ex-

Prices of staple commodities at the exchanges are advanced by the restricted receipts at primary markets. There is a partial offset in the largely increased demand for heavy weight wearing apparel and oher Winter goods, which promises to reduce supplies in all portions at the end of the season. Meanwhile there is evidence that confidence in the fuure remains unshaken, preparations for Spring and Summer trade continuing unabated, except where fuel or other supplies are temporarily blockaded in transit. Jobbing trade in dry goods is on a liberal scale. Railway earnings thus far reported for February were 1.9 per cent. smaller than a year the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, Richmond, in a unique case. It was on motion of Malcolm Jackson and other West Virginia lawyers to disbar M. F. Stiles, a well-known Charleston attorney. The case grew out of a brief filed by Mr. Stiles, who had lost a case in the United States Court in his district of West Virginia. In his brief Mr. Stiles alleged that the lawyers now seeking to disbar him had walked into the grand jury room and had his client indicted by the jury which signed, pos-sibly without reading it, an indictment already drawn. The lawyers, he alleged, had addressed the grand jury and used methods employed in a cut-and-dried county convention. Mr. Stiles holds that what he wrote in his brief was his honest conviction, and disbarring him will not change his views.

Science Hall, a large five-story brick building at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute at Blacksburg, was burned the other morning, causing a loss of about $75,000. The fire started in the chemical laboratory and was under heavy headway when discovered. The cadet fire brigade fought the fire with six streams of water and saved a considerate amount of the chemical laboratory apparatus in a damaged condition. All of the electrical. physical and chemical apparatus was contained therein. No. 4 barracks, within 20 feet of the burning building, was in line with a brisk wind and was in danger for some time. Wet blankets were hung over the windows and kept saturated with water. The cadets fought desperately in a cloud of suffocating smoke and saved the building. Many, however, had their belongings damaged and had to wire home for clothes. The weather was cold and the boys suffered greatly. Science Hall was built three years ago at a cost of $75,000. There was only $12,000 insurance. There are 700 cadets at this institution.

SALT RHEUM ON HANDS Suffered Agony and Had to Wear Bandages

All the Time-Another Cure by Cuticura.

Another cure by Cuticura is told of by Mrs. Caroline Cable, of Wanpoca. in the following grateful letter: "My husband suffered agony with salt rheum on his hands, and I had to keep them bandaged all the time. We tried everything we could get, but nothing helped him until he used Cuticura. One set of Cuticura Soap Ointment and Pills cured him entirely and his hands have been as smooth as pos sible ever since. I hope this letter will be the means of helping other sufferers."
